Never saw so many conference football champions or contenders! Rockdale and Cameron clash tomorrow night to decide the fate of 17-AA. Buckholts and Milano lead their respective Class B conferences, Buckholts running a streak of 12 straight wins.

Neighboring Rogers is the leader in their 1-A conference and plays Academy for the final test tomorrow night at home. And O. J. Thomas has already won its 7-A conference.

It looks like Buckholts and Milano may play at Cameron if all goes well in their final tests. And it's a cinch that a Milam County squad will face Taylor next week. We say that fourth-quarter Yoeman strength will decide the issue for a final score of about 28-13.

106-106-106

The Herald is trying to identify all Milam Countians now serving in Vietnam or in that area for a feature about Vietnam's effect on the Milam scene.

Anyone wishing to provide information on their son, husband, nephew or cousin would be most helpful by providing the boy's name, rank, branch of service, type of job and other background material for use in such a feature.

Ol' Armistice Day, November 11, now called Armed Forces Day, and little recognized except by towns like Thorndale where they shut down the whole day, is less recognized than before World War II, Korea and now Vietnam. Perhaps it is going to mean more as the nasty business in Vietnam drags on and involves even more men.

Cameron post office, Cameron banks (other Milam banks as well), Milam Courthouse and Milam federal offices (ASCS, SCS and FHA) all will observe the holiday, an official one for banks and federal offices throughout the nation.

Services Pending For Mrs. Siebman

Funeral services are pending at Green Funeral Home for Mrs. Dell Horstmann Siebman, 49, who died Wednesday afternoon in a Temple hospital.

Mrs. Siebman, wife of Henry Siebman, Texas Power & Light Company manager in Cameron, was a life-long resident of Cameron. She was personal secretary to Mr. Oxsheer Smith at Citizens National Bank for many years before illness forced her retirement.

Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Miss Marsha Dell Siebman, a student at Blinn Junior College, Brenham; her mother, Mrs. Audell Horstmann of Cameron; and two brothers, Neill Horstmann and Allen Horstmann, both of California.

Christmas Parade Nov. 30 Deadline

Invitations to enter floats in Cameron's Annual Christmas Parade were mailed to area churches and clubs this week by the Chamber of Commerce.

The parade will be Saturday, Dec. 4, and entries will follow the parade theme "A Saviour Is Born." Floats following the theme will be judged and engraved trophies will be awarded first and second place winners. An engraved plaque will be given the third place winner.

Entry blanks, available at the Chamber office, must be returned by November 30, according to Mrs. Barbara Smitherman, Chamber secretary.

Marlow Residents Consider System

A meeting Monday in the Marlow Community surveyed the possibility of a water association and a loan to build a water system for the area.

Henry N. Ivey, county supervisor for Farmers Home Administration, explained methods of organization and application for FHA loan funds.

About 30 community residents met and selected committee including Charles McDermott, chairman; J. L. Lamkin, Jewel Barron, Johnnie Baker and Morris Coward. The group was supplied with survey sheets for potential consumers and members of the water system.

'Precipitous Action:' Alcoa

Aluminum Sale Ires Industry

PITTSBURGH, PENN. Aluminum Company of America has announced it is completely unable to understand the government's "precipitous action" in terminating industry efforts to resolve the disposition of stockpiled aluminum after the major producers offered to purchase all surplus metal at the market price.

Company officials noted that negotiations on the stockpile problem ended suddenly with a government announcement of its intention to dump 200,000 tons of surplus metal into the open market next year ... without an agreement on an overall program for disposal of the balance of stockpiled aluminum.

"Representatives from the primary aluminum industry agreed this week to purchase, at the market price, the entire stockpile surplus of approximately 14 million tons over the next 14 years. Included in this agreement was an industry offer to purchase 200,000 tons in 1966," officials said.

Alcoa said it is at a complete loss to explain the government's action since every evidence prior to early week indicated that industry and government representatives were on the verge of an agreement.

The Company said it is unable to see where the economy, the national interest, and the job security of thousands of Americans can be served by such precipitous action on a question Alcoa and other major producers have been seeking to resolve, in a non-disruptive manner, for some time ... and on which constructive industry proposals were being made when negotiations were concluded.

Alcoa noted that much of the aluminum which recently has been proclaimed in excess of anticipated defense needs, was purchased by the government at a time when it was most disadvantageous to the producers and to civilian users of aluminum to take it off the market.

Further, officials said, to dispose of it now in blocks of such magnitude as to possibly disrupt a key industry, with consequent damage to the economy, is incomprehensible.

Alcoa said that along with other primary producers it has already purchased substantial amounts of aluminum from the stockpile, and that it stands ready to continue to negotiate with the government an orderly, flexible disposal program.

C of C Schedules Hospitality Clinic

Cameron's first hospitality clinic 7 p.m. Tuesday at Methodist Fellowship Hall will host dozens of employees and owners of highway service businesses with a special interest in the tourist industry.

Howard W. Rosser, tourist development manager for East Texas Chamber of Commerce, will present a brief program on tourism potential in Milam County and the income derived from its development.

He will be introduced by Miss Mildred Thornton, hospitality chairman of the Cameron Chamber tourist committee.

TOURIST QUIZ

Rosser also will present a brief quiz to those attending to learn how much Cameron tourist service businesses know about the traveling public and their interests.

Invitations are going out to about 25 businesses on the major highways in Cameron--service station, motel, restaurant, antique shops, automotive centers--asking management and employees to attend. Coffee, soft drinks and a question session will follow the hour-long program.

Preceding Rosser will be Miss Mary Belle Batte, who will present an outline of historic points in Cameron and Milam County, soon to be designated and marked, for visitors here.

Guests will include County Judge Don Humble, Rep. Milton Schiller and Mayor Bassel Wilson.

Tourist chairman Frank Luecke will open the program with brief introductions.

OPEN MEETING

Attendance is not limited to those with special interest in the traveling public. All those interested in the economic and historic influence of Cameron tourism are welcome, officials said.

"This is one of the first hospitality clinics in Central Texas," Chamber officials told The Herald, following a program on tourism possibilities during the September community clinic.

Volunteers Calling In Red Cross Drive

Volunteers calling door to door today (Thursday) for the Red Cross fund drive will be identified with official Red Cross packets and membership cards.

Volunteers in the drive will be from Trinity Baptist Church, First Methodist Church, First Baptist Church, First Christian Church, St. Monica Catholic Church, First Presbyterian Church, Full Gospel Tabernacle, Assembly of God, Battetown Baptist Church, Mexican Baptist Church and the Cameron Welfare Council.

Door to door drives are being made in communities throughout North Milam County.

CISD Tax Office Moved Downtown

The Cameron Independent School District Tax office has been moved to 201 South Houston, according to Ollie Chamberlain, tax collector.

The tax office, located at Ada Henderson School for the past 6 years, will be in the former Claude Triggs Cotton Office.

COURT RULES COOK HAD FAIR TRIAL

The Texas Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the murder with malice aforethought conviction of Oscar F. Cook in a decision announced last week.

Cook, 26, of Rogers, was found guilty of murder with malice by a Falls District petit jury Jan. 30, 1964. He was sentenced to death for fatally shooting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Dan Crow, at her Davilla home in May 1964. Wounded in the shooting were his former wife, Mrs. Velma Crow former brother-in-law, Dan Crow and former sister-in-law, Mary Lou Crow.

The Criminal Appeals Court ruled that Cook had received a fair trial and that evidence in the case was sufficient to sustain the verdict.

County Attorney John Henderson Jr. said Cook's lawyers had 15 days to file a motion for rehearing by the Appeals Court.

Schillers Attend Ceremony, Speech At SWTSC Campus

Rep. and Mrs. Milton Schiller Monday attended the ceremony and speech by President Lyndon Johnson at Southwest Texas State Teachers College where the $2.6-billion federal education bill was signed.

They met Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Donaho, Wilson County ranchers and parents of Mrs. Schiller, at San Marcos. Donaho, former superintendent of Rosebud, now retired, was invited by the President and SWTSTC officials to attend the ceremony, attended by 4,000 people.

Donaho was President Johnson's superintendent of schools at Cotulla when he was principal of Wilhausen School in 1928-29. Donaho and Cong. J. J. Pickle each received one of the two pens used in the signing. And Rep. Schiller received one of several pens also used during the ceremony.

The President said enactment of the bill, HR 9567, opened the doors of colleges and universities to more students. The massive bill makes available funds for secondary and higher education loans, grants and scholarships to individuals and institutions for scholarship and educational equipment.

The ceremony was held at the SWTSC Gymnasium due to rain, but was scheduled for an outdoor setting on the campus.

Rep. and Mrs. Schiller returned to Cameron Monday evening.

Council Empowers 9-Member Panel

The City Council and the newly instituted City Planning Commission will hold a joint meeting 7:30 p.m. Monday to begin discussions for long-range city development.

Consulting engineers will be at the first joint session.

The Planning Commission was the official designation given a nine-member panel, earlier appointed by the Council and at first called the Citizens Improvement Advisory Council.

Headed by businessman A. W. McCullin, the new planning commission drew unanimous support in a November 3 session from city councilmen who approved a resolution outlining the duties of a planning commission. Such a commission is authorized by the City Charter, adopted in the early 1950's.

Councilman R. W. Wells submitted this resolution unanimously endorsed by the Council:

ENABLING RESOLUTION

"A resolution is offered that the recently created group appointed by the City Council be known as The City Planning Commission. To this commission the City Council does delegate authority to originate, develop and bring before the residents of the City of Cameron and the City Council for approval any plans for the improvement of our City and the welfare of the residents of Cameron. It is the further intent of the City Council that this commission will be raised by the Mayor and the City Council in any manner possible. It is anticipated that the Mayor, or a council member designated by the Mayor, will work in conjunction with the commission during the planning stages of any project, with the intent that such plans, when completed, will be within the legal and financial powers of the City Council to accomplish. Further, by this co-ordinated effort, when any plans are carried forward all parties involved will be fully informed during various stages of planning, and such changes and corrections as necessary is approved by the City Council a committee from the Planning Commission will continue to supervise the approved project to completion.

"The members of this commission shall serve for a term of two years from appointment.

"The membership of this commission shall be such number as to be determined at the time such two-year appointments are made, and nothing herein shall prevent the re-appointment of any or all members of such commission."

PANEL MEMBERS

The new planning commission, first one appointed since the 1950's, includes: Bill Burns, Cameron businessman, vice chairman; Mrs. Lois Sapp, former news editor, secretary; and members — Leo Fuchs, E. A. Perrin and E. O. Schiller Jr., Cameron businessmen; Don G. Humble, county judge; Miss Mildred Thornton, estate administrator; and Rev. Richard Freeman, pastor of Cameron First Methodist Church.

McCullin told Cameron Chamber directors Monday that he was proud to serve with such a fine

Tree Fall Fatal For Buckholts Man; Services Tuesday

Silberio Banda, 48, died at a Cameron hospital Sunday afternoon from injuries received in a fall from a tree at his home earlier that day.

Banda, who lived near Buckholts, had climbed the tree in an effort to catch a coon. His wife and son rushed him to a Cameron hospital following the accident, but he died a short time later.

Funeral services were held at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday at the Santisimo Sacramiento Catholic Church in Cameron with Rev. Jimmy Greenwell officiating. Burial was in Hernandez Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife three daughters, Consuelo Banda of Cameron, Maria Delores and Espiranzo Banda of Buckholts; seven sons, Arthur, Bermuda Refugio, Vanancio, Jimmy, Cecilio and Juan of Buckholts; one sister, Inez Bermudez of Corpus Christi; his stepmother, Mrs. Julia Banda of Corpus Christi; and three grandchildren.

Green Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

2 CABLE FIRMS SEEK FRANCHISE FOR CITY AREA

Representatives from two cable television firms, one whose franchise expired during the past year, appeared before the City Council, seeking franchises here.

No action was taken on franchising.

In a November 3 meeting, W. W. Mills and Don Dale, representing A&M Construction Co. of Bryan and Gene Fondren and G. G. Connally representing E. R. Moseby & Co. of Houston, outlined proposals for TV cable service in Cameron.

The Bryan spokesmen said a recent survey of Cameron had been taken and it was feasible for a cable TV service to operate here.

Mills and Dale proposed "off-air" service, meaning pickup of signals to be cabled to TV customers direct from network programming, drawing in stations from the Fort Worth-Dallas area. No permit from Federal Communications Commission is required.

Fondren and Connally explained their system to be a micro-wave type which could reach distant stations. Both men are from Taylor. The micro-wave system requires an FCC permit, Buddy Fuller told The Herald.

The Houston firm had held a cable TV franchise here and in other area communities, City Secretary Buddy Fuller said, and that the firm's franchise here was held for about 16 months, until it lapsed and was cancelled by the City Council.

In other Council action city fathers:

SET a 7:30 p.m. Monday date to meet with the new City Planning Commission (see lead story).

READ reports from water and street departments which noted during routine the installation of two stop signs at Batte and Jefferson intersections, connection of five new sewer service points and emplacement of 450 feet of sewer line.

The Council also approved a resolution outlining areas of responsibility for the new planning commission.

C. R. Smith House Of Civil War Era

By Frank M. Luecke

Not many homes in Milam County or in Texas, for that matter, can claim a pre-Civil War vintage as can the C. R. Smith house, on West Main St.

Part of this home is said to date from the Civil War era, though numerous remodelings and current restoration belie the fact.

The house was built by an early Cameron attorney, C. R. Smith, a bright young lawyer who came from Alabama and who was a grandfather of District Judge C. Wallace of the Milam-Roberts 20th District Court.

Early recognizing the value of accurate deed records, Smith was one of the first to develop [illegible] cord technics for such work, history consultant John B. Henderson Sr. advises.

Smith had three daughters: Mrs. E. A. Wallace, Judge Wallace's mother, Mrs. J. G. Vo and Mrs. Minnie Belle Huey, resident of Arkadelphia, Ark. Son, Roy Smith, is deceased.

During this generation, the Smith property, originally situated on six acres of land between the SAAP railroad was in area, was purchased by J. Wolf, early tax assessor - collector - sheriff, a combination in earlier Texas days.

Then it went to John P. Wooley who worked for Cameron Water Plant when it was privately owned. Of small stature, Wooley is recalled as the man who delivered the town with a cutoff and a collection book, a difficult but important job.

The Wooleys had two daughters, Leila Wooley and a Mrs. Messick, the former also a tax assessor for Milam County. The latter daughter's children now own the property.

The Wooleys have restored the home through recent years, perhaps a century of time with with remarkable durability.

The C. R. Smith Home

Delphian Program On National Bible Week Anniversary

The 25th anniversary of the National Bible Week, which is observed in America and other parts of the world, was recognized by the Delphian Club at a meeting in the home of Mrs. E. A. Perrin on Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Mrs. Eugene Strickland was in charge of the program. Pictures on her subject, "The One Story Of The Bible," were shone on the screen while a record explained each one.

In her talk on the anniversary, Mrs. Strickland said in part, that National Bible week is dedicated to the task of encouraging belief in God, daily Bible reading, Religious Education, the attendance of houses of worship, and is an occasion for each to renew acquaintance with the greatest source of our civilization and culture.

Mrs. Grabein, president, presided over a business meeting. She called for reports from those who attended the Capitol District's workshops and luncheon in Hillsboro.

The hostess served pumpkin pie, coffee, and mints during the social hour.

Misses Mary Randolph and Mildred Thornton will be hostesses for the Thanksgiving program Nov. 16. Rev. J. E. Lafferty will speak to the club at that time.

FHA Chapter Plans Party, Aids Patient

The Yoe F.H.A. Chapter met in the sewing lab for their regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Norma Wald gave a demonstration on Tupperware products. After the demonstration the meeting was called to order and it was decided that the club would have a party on Nov. 22.

A committee was appointed to select Christmas and birthday gifts for Dennis Esslinger, a patient in the Mexia State Hospital. Serving on the committee are: Janice Hughes, Diann Kurtz, Connie Mowdy, Jane Mueck and Frances Urban.

After the business was discussed, the meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served in the kitchen.

Informal Coffee Honors Mrs. Collins

Mrs. John Graham introduced her daughter, Mrs. Carter Collins, to a group of the young women in Cameron at an informal coffee in her home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins and their three year old son recently moved to Cameron from Dallas.

Autumn decorations in the Graham home included a cornucopia of fresh fruit on the serving table. Assisting at the table were Mrs. Porter Young, Mrs. Petie Graham and Mrs. Dan McDaniel.

Hobbies, Collections Displayed For Club Program Tuesday

Growth through hobbies was the program topic for the History Club meeting at the home of Mrs. John Henderson Sr. Tuesday afternoon.

A display of creative hobbies and collections lined the living room and following an introduction by Mrs. Henderson, members and guests told about their hobbies. Included in the collection were paintings, antiques, creative gifts and needlework.

Mrs. Mary McLane Lawrence presided at the business meeting.

During the social hour refreshments were served in the dining room. An arrangement of bronze mums in a crystal epergne centered the serving table. Crystal trays held assortments of finger sandwiches, olives, sliced cake, candies, and nuts. Coffee punch was served from a crystal bowl by Mrs. C. R. Law. Mrs. John Henderson Jr. also assisted at the serving table.

Guests were Mrs. Don Humble, Mrs. George Kirk and Mrs. Frank Luecke.

English Houseguests At Monroe Corbins

The Ronald Bennetts of Middlesbrought, England, were introduced to the American West during a recent visit in Cameron.

The Bennetts were guests of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Corbin, for a three-week visit.

Lions Program About Crippled Children Camp

The Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville was honored Monday, Nov. 8, 1965, with a special program at the Cameron Lions Club.

A. W. McCullin Sr. paid tribute to the members of the Cameron Club and the other Lions of Texas who are providing the handicapped children of Texas with a camp of their own.

The camp was opened in 1953 and accommodated 236 crippled, blind, deaf and mute youngsters the first year. Since then, the camp has grown steadily until it is now serving up a summer filled with fun to 720 children each year.

Since it was opened, the unique camp has given more than 8,000 youngsters the thrill of a lifetime as they learn to swim, to camp outdoors under the stars and develop new skills in various handicrafts.

The camp represents an investment of more than $600,000 in 17 permanent buildings. It is financed by dues of Lions and by gifts from members, clubs and friends of crippled children everywhere.

Local Students Win Industry Contest

St. Anthony School officials here have been notified their school was successful in a national contest held by the Educational ABC'S of Industry.

Sister M. Relindis, principal, announced the following prizes: to John Ben Sutter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Con Sutter, first in essay category; and to Mary Carolyn Matula, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Matula, first in handwriting category. Both are seventh grade students.

The school will recieve an Educational ABC's of Industry for award and each of the winners were presented a check from the $1.

group of people and that they had met once to organize and once with City Council to discuss the broad functions and authority of a planning group, known when first organized as CIAC.

McCullin also told Chamber directors that engineers would be meeting in the joint Planning Commission-Council session Monday night and that discussion would pursue major programs, which he emphasized, "will not happen tomorrow."

PRELIMINARIES

Seven of the nine-member panel met last week with the City Council at City Hall to review the area of responsibility for the Commission, according to City-Secretary Buddy Fuller.

Council approval of Well's resolution empowering and naming the group followed the next evening in another Council meeting.

Numerous projects are in the planning range of the new Commission. Long-range planning on streets, the downtown block already surveyed by Cameron Chamber committees, water and sewer service all would fall under this group's planning jurisdiction.

Chemical Weed Control Talked

By J. D. Moore

A committee of farmers and chemical dealers met Tuesday night, Nov. 2, in the new Duncum Implement Building and heard Dr. Homer Brady, from Texas A&M discuss chemical weed control in crops for 1966.

Dr. Brady pointed out to the group the University's problems in getting chemicals approved by all concerned. He pointed out the major changes that will appear in the guide for 1966. One major change will show caparol recommended to replace prometryne as a premerge to control weeds and grasses in cotton. A better explanation of D.S.M.A. and M.S.M.A. will be included.

Dr. Brady pointed out the results of spraying D.S.M.A. on the cotton plants reduced the yields by about 80 pounds of lint cotton per acre. Directed spray applications will be recommended again for 1966.

Famrers attending the meeting were: Henry W. Abel, Joe P. Mueck, Frank Kratochvil, Anton Moraw, Kenneth Hollas, Eugene Klein, Gene Angell, Ernest Dodd and Durwood Cobb.

Dealers attending were: Coleman Duncum, Chairman of the Milam County Crops Committee, and E. J. Provasek of the Duncum Implement Co., Larry Jensen of Eastern Seed Co., Walter Lester, Cameron Seed Co., and Robert Clark of Milam Grain Co.

County Agents J. D. Moore and Ronald Bailey assisted Dr. Brady with the meeting.

DEAD SPOTS IN HOME LAWNS

The county agent's office received numerous calls during the past 60 days concerning dead spots in St. Augustine lawns. This condition is brought on by the cool damp conditions.

According to Dr. Wendell Horne, Extension Plant Pathologist, Brown patch of St. Augustine is now occuring. This disease is caused by a fungus (Rhizoctonia solani) and is more active during cooler weather. Affected spots are circular in pattern unless several spots have coalesced.

Stolons are not usually killed and by the end of the growing season, green sprigs usually reappear in the center of the affected spot. Despite the fact that the grass comes back, growers will want to prevent damage. A fungicide application should be made prior to infection or very shortly after symptoms are noticed. Fungicide combinations containing PCNB (Terraclor) or PCNB alone has been shown by research to be the most effective treatment.

Spray formulations, either emulsifiable concentrates or wettable powders give more immediate results. Growers who want to use granular formulations should make preventive applications before disease occurrence is expected. Fungicide applications properly applied will stop development of the fungus. The rate at which the spots become recovered will depend on such things as lateness of the season, vigor of the grass and prevailing weather.

Yoemen's Homecoming Victory Marks 9th Win

by Eddie Huntsman

The hometown Cameron Yoemen made it 9 straight here last Friday as they bested the Caldwell Hornets 55-0. This sets up the 17AA district battle Friday against Rockdale with both teams boasting a 3-0 district record.

Jack McKinney started the night as he kicked off to the Hornets and the ball was returned to the Caldwell 23 yd. line. From there they racked up a first down on three plays, but it was to be their last in the first half.

Caldwell punts and James Hoskins returns the punt to the Hornet 41, but is called back on a Yoe clipping penaltyy and the Yoemen start on their own 31. On the first play Mike McDaniels picks up 19 yards to the midfield stripe. Mack McKinney gets one yard after picking up his own fumble. Manley picks up 9 yards and a first down. James Hoskins gets 10 yards to the visitors 30. "Bull" McDaniels gets 12 to the 18 yd. line and another play nets 10 yards to the 8. McFarland gets 7 yards and Mack McKinney gets the first of eight Yoe TD's from 1 yard out. Brother Jack McKinney kicks the extra point and Yoe leads with 5:37 left in the first quarter.

Caldwell returns the ball to their own 28 but two recovered fumbles and an incomplete pass get them nothing and they are forced to punt. The Yoemen return the ball to their own 37 and they are back in business again. Donald Manley gets 12 yards to the 49 and Hoskins gets 11 yards to the visitors 40. Mike McDaniels rambles to the 19 and then James Hoskins gets the second Yoe touchdown on a 19 yard run with 3:01 left in the first quarter. PAT is good and the Yoemen lead 14-0. The ball is returned to the Hornets 27 but after 4 plays and 9 yards they punt. The Yoemen drive back down the field and with just 23 seconds left in the quarter Hoskins scores his second touchdown from 16 yards out. A successful point after and the quarter ends with the Yoemen out in front 21-0.

Caldwell has the ball on their own 29 yard line but the Yoemen defense will not give them anything and they punt again.

James Hoskins returns the ball to the Hornet 33 and the reserves make their first appearance. Don Mitchell at QB, Forrest Green at HB, Wayne Kirk at FB, and Leo Michalka at the other halfback slot. Wayne Kirk goes to the 14, Mitchell to the 9 and Michalka to the 4. Leo Michalka goes on for the 4th Cameron touchdown with a four yard run. The PAT is good and Cameron is in a commanding lead 28-0 with 8:05 left in the half. The Hornets return the ball to their own 20 and from that point they gain a single yard and again punt to the Yoemen. Hoskins returned the ball to the Caldwell 14 with a 47 yard return. From there Green picks up 5 yards to the 9. Al Hefft gets 7 yards to the 2 and Forrest Green picks up another Cameron TD with 4:35 left in the half. The points after were good and the defending 17-AA Cameron Yoemen were out in front to stay, 35-0.

But the Hornets from Caldwell did not give up and started action on their 27. On the first play James Vogelsang intercepts a

But the Hornets from Caldwell do not give up and start action on their 27. On the first play James Vogelsang intercepts a Hornet pass and returns to the 19. A 5 yard penalty against Cameron slows the reserves and the Yoemen gave up the ball after 4 downs. Caldwell starts on their 6 yd. line and moves to the 12, but there the half ends with the Yoemen leading 35-0.

The Yoemen get the second half kick off and return it to the 46. From that point McKinney passes to Hoskins for a 46 yard touchdown pass but it is called back by a Cameron penalty. The Yoemen try again. "Bull" gets back the 5 yards on the penalty and McKinney passes to McFarland which is good for a first down on the Caldwell 38. McKinney gets 2 yards and Leo Michalka goes to the 11. From there Manley gets the TD. After the successful extra kick by Jack McKinney the Yoemen lead 42-0. From this point the reserves play out the rest of the third quarter and the entire fourth quarter but even the second and third teams manage more scoring.

After the Caldwell punt, the Yoemen start again on their own 10. With Glen Fogle at quarterback Cameron moves steadily to the visitors 43 but bog down at that point and give up the ball on downs. The Hornets punt again (they punted eight times during the game) and the Yoemen start again. A Yoe clipping penalty moves them back to their 30.

Michalka runs for 18 yards to the 48 and Green gets 5 to the Hornet 47. After two incomplete passes the Yoemen fumble and a Caldwell lineman pounces on the loose ball and recovers on their 33. The first play is a pass and Bill Goeke intercepts and runs 35 yards for a touchdown. The PAT fails and with just 28 seconds left the Yoemen lead 48-0.

Stone returns the ball to the 39 and on the first play Green intercepts the ball and goes for a touchdown which is called back because of pass interference. Two plays later the third quarter ends with the Yoemen out in front 48-0.

The Yoemen start again on the offensive after Vogelsang recovers a Caldwell fumble. Hoskins at quarterback gets the last Yoe touchdown with a 26 yard run. The point after is good and with 10:05 left in the fourth, Cameron leads 55-0.

From this point the game is a series of punts for Caldwell and the Yoemen giving the ball up on downs. The Cameron Yoemen won their ninth straight ball game by the score of 55-0 and head back to the practice field and make ready to invade Tiger territory next week.

CHEERS FOR UNDEFEATED YOE YOES

by Eddie Huntsman

The Seventh grade finished their season last Thursday night at Yoe Field and remained undefeated. They allowed just 8 points to be scored on them as they upset the previously undefeated and unscored upon Caldwell Seventh grade 12-8.

The Yoe-Yoes kicked off and recovered a Caldwell fumble on the kickoff. From there they drove to the 10 yard line and Dale Schigut ran for the touchdown. The PAT failed and the Yoe-Yoes led 6-0. Caldwell got 2 plays in the first quarter before the Cameron team recovered a fumble, but were unable to score. In the second quarter quarterback Gallows went for a 60 yard touchdown run and then threw a pass to Brenkman for the 2 points and the Caldwell team went ahead 8-6.

In the third quarter Dale Schigut went 68 yards with 4:32 left in the quarter. The PAT failed and the Yoemen led 12-8. Later in the fourth quarter Meek blocked a Caldwell punt but they were content to run the time out and the game ended with the Yoe-Yoes winning by the score of 12-8.

Normangee Here For Milano Homecoming

The Milano Eagles will have their annual Homecoming Friday, Nov. 12, when they will host the Normangee Panthers. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Pre-game ceremony will feature the introduction of the players and their Dads. The Queen will be crowned during the halftime activities. There will be a social for all ex-students in the school cafeteria following the game.

Placer gold was washed in Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama before it was found in California.

Spear points of flaked stone found in a cave in the Sandia Mountains near Albuquerque, New Mex., are estimated to be 25,000 years old.

TOUCHDOWN, by golly, for YHS halfback Forrest Green in this bit of scoring during the Caldwell - Cameron game, a 55-0 gambol for Yoe backs. This was one of eight touchdowns. Green's tacklers are not identified, but he was in the endzone before they brought him down. Touchdowns won't come as easy Friday night when Cameron travels to Rockdale for the 17-AA decider. Rockdale is 6-3 and 3-0 for regular and district seasons. YHS scoring, like this touchdown, places Cameron (9-0) fourth in State AA, second in AA scoring and first in line for a rousing battle at Rockdale.

Cameron, Rockdale To Battle For District Title

By Eddie Huntsman

The Cameron Yoemen play for all the marbles this coming Friday night as they travel to Rockdale and meet the Tigers in home territory. The Tigers have a 6-3 record this year with the only defeats to Belton, Class AAA club, Taylor, potential 16AA district winners, and Bellville, third ranked in state in Class AA.

A. D. Burton, a 1:51 man in the 100 yard dash, plays right halfback opposite Mike Rek. The Rockdale quarterback is Jimmy Keen and Mike Brannam serves at the FB slot. Jimmy Keen passes from 8 to 15 times in a single ball game and his favorite receiver is Glen Chmelar. He will be backed up by Stanley Bower, a sophomore, who throws and runs the ball well. They are an essentially young ball club with only 3 seniors on the starting offensive and defensive units, and there are only 4 seniors on the entire team.

They run from a T-formation, use a split end and back and several variations of both. The quarterback is a good runner, the two halfbacks strong on the end sweeps and the fullback is a strong blocker. He has completed 31 of 57 passes this season. Chmelar has caught 17 and Burton 9 of Keen's aerials.

The Yoemen have their offense built around quarterback Mack McKinney and fullback Mike "Bull" McDaniel, both seniors. McKinney has 4 years experience and McDaniel three. McKinney was called up from the "B" team for the Navasota game his freshman year and was instrumental in handing the Rattlers a 7-6 defeat. McDaniel broke into the starting line-up his sophomore year and has had the starting fullback position ever since. He missed only one ball game, his sophomore year, against Rockdale, but has been healthy for the varsity games and is waiting now to get a Tiger.

From rumors at Yoe High, signs have apeared in the Rockdale schools which state, in effect, "Beat Taylor in Bi-District," but they have to get by the Yoemen first before they start thinking about the play-offs. The students and the Yoemen are not conceeding anything to Rockdale and only time will tell who has the best football team in Milam County.

The Tigers are undefeated in district play, as they were last year going into the Cameron game, and boast a strong defense.

The probable starting line-ups for both teams will be:

ROCKDALE

Name	Wgt.	Pos.
Bobby Moorman	184	LE
Robby Robertson	185	LT
Carey Offield	181	LG
Ronnie Heflin	176	C
Mike Speer	177	RG
Billy Bob Farr	199	RT
Glen Chmelar	200	RE
Jimmy Keen	154	QB
A. D. Burton	164	RHB
Mike Rek	164	LHB
Mike Brannam	174	FB

CAMERON YOEMEN

Name	Wgt.	Pos.
Newton Burnett	156	LE
Dennis Rose	154	LT
Frankie Mikulec	174	LG
Eugene Wallace	174	C
Joe Paul Mueck	174	RG
James Hesch	187	RT
Eugene Zalesky	158	RE
Mack McKinney	175	QB
Don Manley	147	RHB
James Hoskins	142	LHB
Mike McDaniel	194	FB

The starting offensive platoon for Rockdale averages 182 pounds and the Yoemen average 166 pounds. The 16 pound difference between Tiger and Yeoman may be large to some people, but it is the experience and determination that count.

So the district championship will be decided Friday night and the Rockdale homecoming will add a great deal of vigor to the homecoming and the home field Tigers. It was once said that are worth 7 points. The Tigers may need that boost if they hope to take the Yoemen out of the ranks of the undefeated and cart home the 17AA district championship.

Undefeated Badgers Play Oglesby Sat.

The Buckholts Badgers, undefeated through 18 games, will take on the Oglesby Tigers Saturday night at Buckholts Field in the third district game for the Badgers.

The Badgers, hindered by unfavorable weather, did not get to practice last week and most of this week but are still pre-pared for this tough game Saturday night.

The game with Oglesby was originally scheduled for Friday, Nov. 12, but was recently changed to Saturday, Nov. 13 Game time is 7:30.

Last year the Badgers trounced the Tigers 61-32 at Oglesby, and this year in a B team game, the Badgers came out on top, 34-0. The probable starting line-up for the Badgers will be Don Glaser, QB, Tommy Gresak and Calvin Shenkir at the halfback slots, Frank Tomascik at center, and Larry Kudlacek and James Janes combining at ends.

ROGERS NOTES

Brian Harbour of Rogers has been selected at Baylor University and by the Who's Who national board for recognition in the 1965-1966 volume of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Harbour, a senior history and religion major, was also chosen for this honor last year.

Thirty-five students of Baylor University were selected for this honor. They will be given certificates at the Omicron Delta Kappa awards benquet in the spring.

Harbour is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harbour.

Eighth Grade Ends Season With Win Over Caldwell 28-0

by Eddie Huntsman

The Cameron Eighth grade finished their season on a winning note as they defeated the Caldwell Eighth grade 28-0.

The Hornets won the toss and elected to receive the ball but they failed to move through the mud and punted. The Yoemen moved the ball well considering weather conditions and with 52 seconds left in the first quarter Dennis Crouch scored, David Bowen ran the 2 points and Cameron led 8-0.

Neither team moved well, but with 7:15 left in the second quarter Ramirez scored the second Cameron touchdown. The PAT failed and the Cameron team lead 14-0. The mud and the Cameron defense were against the Caldwell team and when the Yoemen got their hands on the ball again, Dennis Crouch scored from the 40 with just one second left in the half.

Neither team could do anything in the third quarter as the rains came down just a little harder. In the fourth quarter the rain let up a little and again Crouch scored with 4:43 left in the game. The PAT after failed. After that the clock worked against the Caldwell team and the game ended with the Cameron Eighth grade winning 28-0.

OJT Bulldogs Win District Championship, Defeat Smith

The O. J. Thomas Bulldogs rolled over the Smith High Panthers 14-6 to win district 17-A Championship. Saturday the Bulldogs, undefeated in district play, clashed head on with the only other undefeated team in the district, the Smith Panthers.

The Panthers were on their home field and this was their homecoming game, they were also fresh from a 66 to 0 victory over Belton. The field was muddy and in spots pools of water stood, but the sun was shining bright when the Bulldogs emerged the victors of District 7-A after about 17 years of trying and coming close but not quite making the grade.

The game opened with the Bulldogs kicking to Smith. Smith returned the kickoff to the 23 yard line, the Bulldogs' defense forced Smith to punt three downs later and the Bulldog offense had its first crack at Smith's defense. The Bulldogs discovered early in the game that the defensive unit of Smith was quick and displayed the best pursuit of any team yet played.

In the second quarter Kelley hit Joe Holloway with a pass up the middle which was good for 30 yards, after good runs by Knight, Ray and Kelley, Knight carried the pigskin 6 yards over right guard for the touchdown. M. G. Young tried the point after but failed to make it. Late in the second quarter after an interception by J. L. William, QB Kelley passed to Johnnie Holloway for the second touchdown. The Bulldogs ran for the points after and the first half ended with the Bulldogs leading 14-0.

Smith scored in the late seconds second half. They moved the ball for two first downs before the Bulldog defense stiffened and stopped the drive, but a 15 yard penalty gave Smith the ball in good field position.

Smith scored in the 1st seconds of the third quarter on a perfect pass from their QB Morse. The point after failed and the fourth quarter opened with the Bulldogs' lead cut to 14-6.

The fourth quarter was largely a defensive battle with the Bulldogs playing ball control. Rogers Petty intercepted a pass that helped to break the back of Smith High. Edward Aycox, a tackle, tuned a pass attempt perfectly and knocked it back into the ace of the passer.

Jame Griffin, Eddie Johnson, David Fillmore, Dennis Poole, Curtis (the foot) Rose, Eddie Stephen, Alvin Stephen, Niley Rosemond and Freddie Townsend played outstanding ball throughout the game.

With about four minutes left in the game, Knight broke thourgh Smith High's line and ran for 35 yards behind perfect blocking by Ray, Kelley and Holloway for a first down in good field position. When the game ended, the Bulldogs were four yards from pay dirt with a first down. Final score, O. J. Thomas Bulldogs 14; Smith 6.

The Bulldogs will close out the regular season Saturday, Nov. 13, when they play Calvert in a non-district game. This will be the annual parent night game sponsored by the Booster Club.

Space-Age 'Reconstruction' . . .

The first thing most obvious about the amendment vote last week is that too many admendments annually are voted on and are being tagged on to the Texas Constitution.

One would think, at times, it was a book of ordinances that should be lengthened (and is required by present law to be) whenever a change in government is necessary, like some municipal code book.

It shouts the need for a modern constitution which is functional in the mid-20th Century.

The second thing quite obvious in Milam's vote on Amendment I is that no additional buildings are needed in Texas colleges and universities. The vote was, however, close, 709 for, 714 against by unofficial tally. The state voted for this amendment.

On the other hand, Milam County favored by a similar narrow margin (766-745) a four-year term for governor, lieutenant-governor, secretary of state and attorney general. The state did not. If some provision for a limitation of four-year terms or a non-succession clause had been provided, (Oklahoma, for example, allows only one four year term in succession, though the governor then can seek re-election after sitting out a term) this amendment would have carried throughout Texas. But it would have meant better government leadership than the two-year term.

The sentiment evidenced in the Milam's vote on No. 1 follows the attitude about other public building needs, such as the Milam jail and courthouse. We need say only that it is fortunate that Milam did not speak for Texas' needs in higher education facilities as it did for its own county building needs.

We, perhaps, cannot now see the population explosion in the cities and their satellite communities, but some will live to see it in a few Milam communities. That Milam attitude will change, we are confident, before need exceeds capacity to meet it.

Milam voters joined with the state in favoring aid for the needy, a student loan, judiciary retirement, but went against the Texas grain on veterans loan continuation by voting for it while Texas did not.

This suggests that Milam Countians have not taken as full advantage of the veteran loan deal as has the now dominant metro area vote. It is now too late. Milam County joined Texas in voting against the Houston hospital amendment, which by the nature of the Texas Constitution is required. Such probably should be an affair of local development throughout.

And Milam voters agreed with other Texans that legislative officers' salaries should continue to be set by Constitution rather than by Legislature, the Lower House, of which also lost approval for a four-year term, probably the only, unicamerally aimed amendment on the ballot in years.

The total Texas vote exceeded expectations by a couple hundred thousand, showing greater interest though not great enough in the vital basis for Texas government, a Constitution of Reconstruction attempting a Space-Age job.

Classroom TV???

Yoe High School, one of the older high schools in Central Texas, is going modern.

A new science lab, the latest in this type of class room equipment, is now in use. Its addition follows installation last year of a language lab, also employing the latest technics in classroom instruction.

We suggest another consideration, possibly beyond practicality now, but worth consideration if an education TV station ever functions n Central Texas.

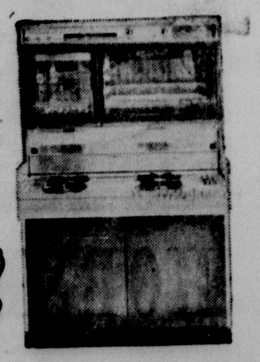
What are the possibilities of Yoe High School and others of similar size employing television instruction, channeling classroom programming from a centrally located TV station?

It would serve a wide area of schools unable to compete for specialists in so many teaching fields now, but would give exposure to centain expertise impossible on limited, small-district budgets.

This device is in use in other parts of the nation. In the Midwest, for example, a plane flies a certain pattern and relays education programming to schools in several states subscribing to the service. It supplements rather than replaces classroom instruction just as slides, films and lab equipment now do.

Is it possible?

Uncommonly good cooks use cool, modern gas



When you turn on a modern gas range it starts cooking—instantly. There's no warm-up period. When you turn off a gas range it stops cooking—instantly. There's no hangover heat to heat your kitchen or burn your food. And when you broil with gas you can keep the door closed because the gas flame consumes the smoke. You and your kitchen stay cooler, cleaner. Uncommonly good suggestion: see the modern gas ranges now on sale at Gas Appliance Dealers—or Lone Star Gas.

State Candidate Field Broadens

AUSTIN

Both ultra-liberals and ultra-conservatives have indicated they want a place on the 1966 general election ballot.

Texas liberal spokesmen hint they may run a candidate for governor and perhaps one for the U. S. Senate if Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr is the Democratic senatorial nominee.

Conservative party already has adopted a resolution of intent to nominate state candidates next year.

CANDIDATES ANNOUNCE

Two new candidates have announced for statewide office.

They are State Sen. Galloway Calhoun of Tyler for attorney general; and State Rep. Paul B. Haring of Goliad for railroad commissioner.

Haring will take on Commissioner Byron Tunnell of Tyler. Tunnell was appointed by Gov. John Connally last January to fill the unexpired term of Ernest O. Thompson, who resigned because of ill health.

Secretary of State Crawford Martin of Hillsboro and State Sen. Franklin Spears of San Antonio announced earlier for attorney general.

NEW WEAPON FOUND

A significant new weapon has been acquired by the State of Texas against a federal lawsuit to abolish the poll tax as a voting requirement in this state, reports Attorney General Carr.

U. S. Senate Judiciary Committee has made available to Carr testimony of federal Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach purportedly acknowledging the Texas poll tax is not used for racial discrimination.

Carr maintains that, in view of testimony, Congress could not have had Texas in mind when it authorized suits against the levy as a voting requirement under the new voting rights act.

Case is set for trial December 1 in Austin.

REAPPORTIONMENT FACTS

Equitable reapportionment of the Texas Legislature will bring no major switch toward liberalism, according to University of Texas Institute of Public Affairs study.

Both theory of constant urban-rural conflict among lawmakers and assumption of big city liberalism are mainly myth, study condlues.

Votes on 45 selected roll-calls were carefully enelyzed. Reapportionment, the study maintained, will bring few if any major policy changes in the State Legislature. A number of experts and would-be experts strongly disagree.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNNCED

Terrell Blodgett of Austin, director of the Texas Economic Opportunity Office, will join the administrative staff of Governor Connally on December 1.

Blodgett will be replaced by State Sen. Walter Richter of Gonzales.

Cornally also announced these appointments:

William P. Hobby Jr. and C. T. Parker, both of Houston, to University of Houston Board of Regents. Reappointed to same board were James T. Duke of Johnson City, Col. William B. Bates of Houston and James A. Elkins Jr. of Houston.

E. C. Pannell of Fort Worth, A. M. Willis of Longview and Raymond L. Tillett of Big Spring to the Board of Regents of North Texas State University.

Robert W. Kneebone of Houston, reappointed to Texas Youth Council.

W. G. McCampbell Jr. of Goliad to the San Antonio River Authority.

BOLLWORM CONTROLS

Planting and plow - up dates were established in Pecos, Ward and Reeves Counties due to "serious increase" in pink bollworm infestation, according to Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Voluntary program in that area calls for February 15 as plow-up date for destruction of all cotton stalks, gin trash and over-wintering places. Texas Department of Agriculture will supervise a mandatory control program the following year.

No cotton will be planted before April 10, 1966, under agreement of cotton farmers.

POVERTY PROGRAMS

Eleven more Neighborhood Youth Corps projects have been approved by Governor Connally.

New programs will be conducted in Dallas, Eastland, Mathis, Mercedes, Olton, Orange, Paducah, Robstown, Slaton, Sweetwater and the Uvalde area (comprised of Uvalde, Kinney and Real Counties).

Washington officials have submitted a revised project, sponsored by the Texas Farmers Union, to Governor Connally for his approval. Connally vetoed an earlier proposal.

SUPREME COURT RULES

Sanford Independent School District lost its suit to collect $10,322 in taxes from H. B. Zachry Co. of San Antonio when the Supreme Court okayed an earlier decision.

Court ruled the construction equipment sought to be taxed was only temporarily situated in the school district. It's taxable only at San Antonio, Court said.

LARGER LAKE APPROVED

Texas Water Rights Commission voted to enlarge the storage capacity of Lake Lavon from 100,000 to 380,000 acre feet.

Lake Lavon serves Dallas, Farmersville, Fate, Forney, Garland, McKinney, Mesquite, Milligan, Murphy, Nevada, Plano, Princeton, Richardson, Rockwall, Rowlett, Royse City, Sachse, Sunnyvale and Wylie.

SALES, BUILDING DOWN

Both building and retial sales in Texas took a drop during September, according to University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Sales were off 2.2 per cent after adjustment for seasonal variation. September dropoff follows a decline of 15.4 per cent in August.

Building permits were down 33 per cent from August and 17 per cent below September, 1964.

Big drop is in non-residential building down 53 per cent from August. September index was within three per cent of monthly average for 1965, excluding the August peak.

PENLIGHT USEFUL

Handy around camp—and a big help to the fisherman too—is a small penlight. Hang it on a cord around your neck. Then you always have a light, but you don't lose a hand holding it. Real handy when it comes to tying on hooks, swivels, lures etc.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

J. A. Says Outlawing War On Moon Is Right Idea But It's Wrong Place

Dear editar:

This newspaper I found buried under a pile of leaves—I wasn't bothering the leaves, the wind did it—was fifteen days old but anytime I'm not more than 15 days behind, I figure I'm about on schedule, the same as the State Department, so I took it in the house and settled down.

On an inside page was an article about a conference of international legal experts in Athens, Greece, who have been struggling with the problem of law on the moon and other planets we may land on, and they raised some interesting questions.

For example, if a murder occurs on the moon, do you have to try the murderer up there in the county where the crime was committed? Does a patent for a valuable invention hold good up there? What would keep a company from borrowing the formula for the newest new - and - improved laundry soap from another company and selling the stuff to the moon colonizers, who are going to need a lot of soap in all that volcanic dust. And, can the first astronaut to land there claim the entire moon for his country, or just the part he can stake out, if the volcanic ash will hold a stob?

But the suggestion that threw me was one by a Hungarian expert who argues the earth ought to get together now and outlaw war on the moon

This is what comes of being an expert. He's got it exactly backwards. The best place I know to fight a war is on the moon. The place to outlaw it is on the earth.

Up there, there're no buildings in the way, no shrubbery to hide behind, no rivers to cross, no mud to contend with, the ground is always dry, you've got 365 fighting days a year, and when you get through the place doesn't look any different than it did before you started.

If man needs anything, it's some place to fight a war off the earth, and it's just like some lawyer to try to keep us from switching it to the moon.

I'm afraid though that not enough people in Red China and Russia will read this issue of The Herald, and we'd better stick by our guns for a while longer.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Now! '66 Chevelle Malibu by Chevrolet

'66 Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe (foreground) and new 4-door Malibu Sport Sedan.

Two racy new hardtops

A clean-sculptured new sport coupe with recessed rear window, and—for the first time—a 4-door Chevelle Sport Sedan. Pick from 12 racy-looking new Chevelles in all for '66.

Not only will you find more variety in the '66 Chevelle lineup, but even more of what makes a Chevelle a Chevelle.

Say you pick a new Malibu Sport Sedan and specify the new 220-hp V8. You've got yourself quite a machine.

Or pick a Malibu Sport Coupe, equip it with the new Strato-bucket front seats, and order the new 275-hp V8. You've got yourself even more machine.

Or maybe you'd like to pick a new black-grilled SS 396 Coupe or Convertible. (Standard engine is a Turbo-Jet 396 V8 with 325 hp. And there's also a 360-hp version you can specify.) Now you've got yourself the most.

Which '66 Chevelle for you? The answer to that covers a lot more ground than we can here. And that's where your Chevrolet dealer comes in.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Theft: A Tax Deduction

During divorce proceedings, a court awarded part of the family's money to the wife. Her husband, outraged, reacted very much like the proverbial pugilist who cries: "I wuz robbed!"

In that spirit, he solemnly claimed a deduction for "theft" on his next income tax return. But the government took a dim view of his claim. And, after a court hearing, the judge ruled this was not exactly the kind of theft that the tax law had in mind.

Generally speaking, you do have a right to deduct for loss-by-theft of your personal property, above a $100 minimum. Unless you are covered by insurance, you may subtract the amount of the loss from your gross income.

But the government will insist on a reasonable showing that you really did suffer a theft. Mere unexplained disappearance is not enough.

For instance:

In one case, a man's wallet vanished from his pocket at some unknown point during a walk downtown and a ride in an elevator. The court found "only the suspicion of a theft"—not enough to justify a tax deduction.

In another case, a valuable bird dog, released for exercise, simply disappeared. The court, observing that the dog might as probably be lost as stolen, denied tax relief to the owner.

On the other hand, you do not need overwhelming, ironclad proof to establish a claim. The circumstances of your loss may be convincing enough, even though no thief is ever caught.

For example:

A traveller was advised, at an airport stopover, that it was safe to leave his camera in the plane. But upon his return he found the camera gone. Theft was held sufficiently likely, in these circumstances, to support his claim for a tax deduction.

A woman kept a diamond pin in a locked drawer, but with the key accessible to her maid. When she returned home after a few days' absence, the pin was missing. So were some clothes, so were some linens, and so was the maid. Held: good enough evidence of theft.

In Texas
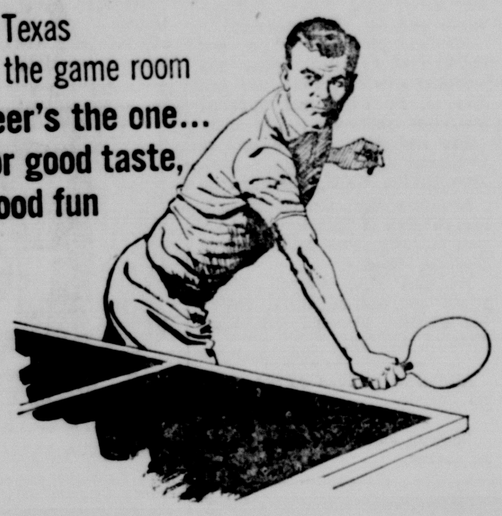
beer's the one...
for good taste,
good fun



You name your game, ping-pong or checkers, cards or chess. Play it hard, and it takes a lot out of you. That's when you like most to settle down in a soft chair and enjoy your friends' talk and your beer's taste. Beer was made to relax with. Made to refresh you, cool you, cheer your taste. So next time you're playing some sociable at-home game, take time out for the companionable taste of beer.

BURLINGTON --

By Mrs. George Logan

BURLINGTON

Mrs. Ben Linderman is a patient in St. Edward Hospital in Cameron.

Relatives here received the sad news of the death Friday of Mrs. Alice Mitchell of Cameron. She was a sister to Mr. John McElwrath and Jodie McElwrath, both of Rosebud. Quite a few friends and relatives of Rosebud and Burlington attended the funeral.

Mrs. Margaret McAtee and Mrs. Willie Mae Witte have returned from Houston and La Porte where they visited relatives.

An associational recreation meeting on Community Improvement will be held Nov. 11 at the Burlington School. All interested please be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Litzman and five children of Houston were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Litzman at Burlington and Mr. and Mrs Henry Trojan of Rosebud.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Lewis Stuessel of Temple and Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Marek of Burlington have returned from Ft. Poik, La., where they visited relatives. They made a special visit to a new baby boy born in Louisiana.

Friends here will be wanting to learn how Bill Wuensch of La Porte is getting along since his serious accident while doing carpenter work some time ago. We are sorry he is not more improved. He is a former resident.

Rev. and Mrs. Henry Davenport Jr. of Atkins, Ark., arrived here Nov. 11 for a vacation with his parents at Burlington. They plan to be here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin and sons Mike and John Raymond, of Ennis were here Sunday, Oct. 31 for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Phil Krause and Hugh Martin.

The 13th anniversary of United Church of Christ at Ben Arnold was celebrated Sunday, Nov. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. David Krause of Victoria spent last weekend here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Krause and David and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. James Bostick and Maurie on Sunday at Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Krause have returned from San Antonio where they had a wonderful vacation..

Mrs. J. D. Roberts of Waco and Mr. Ernest Stuessel of Mooreville have visited Mrs. Hattie Benesh here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Wunsch and Mrs. Gerald Foshea and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ralston visited Harlan Wunsch and William Foshea at Stephenville last Saturday.

There were 8 visitors at the Baptist Church here from Waco on Sunday. The Lord's Supper was observed; Rev. Lillard preached good and interesting sermons; and Miss Brenda Dorsett and Jay Iearce furnished good music.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hensel and family of Waco and Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Hensel and family of Rosebud were weekend guests of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hensel at Burlington.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Are You Conceited?

By Jane Sherrod Singer

It is important for each of us to build personal pride and self-confidence, but these characteristics like salt in the stew, can be overdone. Conceit takes the rare and undesirable ability to lie to oneself. Let's answer the following questions honestly to see if you are a milk toast, a confident person, or a conceited oaf.

	YES	NO
1. Do you secretly believe that most people are stupid?	( )	( )
2. Do you feel that most of your friends do not know the real you?	( )	( )
3. Do you often interrupt others when they are telling a story or a joke?	( )	( )
4. Do you harbor the thought that you are quite a unique person, something apart from the usual run-of-the-mill?	( )	( )
5. Have you noticed that success comes to you easily while others have to work for it?	( )	( )
6. Are you satisfied with what you have achieved, feeling that no one could have done better under similar circumstances?	( )	( )
7. Do you like going to parties/places where you know you will be recognized?	( )	( )
8. Do you like to se your name in print?	( )	( )
9. Do you find yourself looking in mirrors?	( )	( )
10. Would it please you if a friend named her child after you?	( )	( )
11. When you write a letter to a friend, is it filled with I, me, my, mine, etc?	( )	( )
12. Do you seldom tell others of your problems or failures?	( )	( )
13. Do you feel foreigners are inferior culturally?	( )	( )
14. Do you feel that your talents are not really appreciated?	( )	( )
15. Can you honestly say your feelings have never been hurt?	( )	( )

SCORING: Give yourself two points for each "yes" answer.

0 to 8 points: Take a good look at yourself. Did you cheat on this test a little by answering what you thought would give you a high score? Because if you did not, your ego may need some fortification. You may not be making a justifiable impression on your friends.

10 to 16 points: It is evident that you are self-possessed, a characteristic that may have begun to color your emotions, your sense of proportion and your power of self-criticism. However, you stand on your own two feet.

18 to 30 points: Very likely you give the impression of being a pompous bore. Try to see others around you, and, just for a mental exercise, list two things about each of your friends that are superior to your own qualities. It could be that your conceit is a cover-up for your own sense of insecurity; So take stock of your assets and limitations.

Double Names Pose Problems For Hiway Dept.

AUSTIN
Names sometimes have to do double-duty in Texas, especially on the Official State Highway Map published by the Texas Highway Department.
You'll find Dallas in Dallas County, El Paso in El Paso County, Lubbock in Lubbock County, Nacogdoches in Nacogdoches County. But that doesn't prove a thing.
You might suppose that Huntsville would be in Hunt County. But it isn't. It's in Walker County. And Jefferson, the town, should be in Jefferson, the County. Actually, it's a good 200 miles north of Jefferson County, in Marion County.
Jefferson County does include the community of Sabine, but Sabine County is about 75 miles away. Sabine County, on the other hand, is the site of a town named Milam - but Milam County is a far piece west in Central Texas.
Cameron is the county seat of the county -Milam County, that is, not Cameron County. Brownsville is the county seat of Cameron County and Brown County is hundreds of miles north in West Central Texas. Oddly enough, Brownwood is its county seat.
Not confused enough? Okay, let's look again. Start with Caldwell County. Don't bother to look for the city of Caldwell there. it's in Burleson County. Burlesonl the town, is in Johnson County; and Johnson City - you've heard of this place - is miles away in Blanco County.
Or take Houston. Houston is in Harris County, but Houston County is three counties north, and the city of Crockett is its county seat. Crockett County is in far West Texas. And so it goes.
